SANTA CLAUS

Dear Reese, Madeline and Zachary,

It made me so sad to hear from Minya the Elf that you haven't been treating each other very nicely. He mentioned you guys have been arguing quite a bit and not listening to your mommy and daddy.

The elves and I have been working hard all year long to make lots of toys for good little girls and boys. We've been making dolls, games, race cars, trains and so many exciting things to share on Christmas Day with all of the children who worked hard to be on the Nice List.

There is still time for all of you to be moved to my Nice List. Do you want to know how? Listen very carefully, OK? I want you to try very hard to use nice words, listen to your mommy and daddy when they ask you for help or ask you to behave. And please take care of your toys by treating them with respect. Nothing makes the elves sadder than to see children not take care of their toys. They worked very hard on those toys!

I look forward to hearing a good report from Minya!

Lots of love from the North Pole,

Santa
